Summary of reasons for decision:

The image depicts sexual conduct between two people. Due to concerns about the age of one of the participants, the Classification Office has considered whether it promotes or supports, or tends to promote or support, the exploitation of young persons for sexual purposes in terms of s3(2)(a) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993, and concluded that it does not. The publication's unrestricted availability is however likely to be injurious to the public good. It is clearly an image of a sexual situation and is intended for the purpose of sexual arousal. Children and teenagers do not have the experience or maturity to appropriately process or contextualise such depictions. The image is therefore restricted to an adult audience. This limits the right to freedom of expression as set out in the New Zealand Bill Of Rights Act 1990 but is justified in order to prevent injury to the public good.
